

Get excited!

Right now you may feel overwhelmed, but over the course of our approximately 1 hour consultation you will be shocked about how many decisions you will make and just how easy it was. And no worries, if you are having a hard time with decisions you will be armed with color swatches, samples and more goodies to help guide you in eventually making the calls.

At our consultation I'll show you my Custom Lovely Somethings, and albums by noted designers, Vera Wang, William Arthur and more. I'll explain different printing techniques and give you ball park costs, but it's very important to consider your budget ahead of time. I'm not a car salesman trying to up-sell you, I truly want what's best for you and we will figure out a combination that you've dreamed of or hopefully more, and can afford.

Before we meet...

if you would be so kind to fill out as many answers as you can, below.
